Speetonia colligata Black, 1971

Fig. 10 — Speetonia colligata n. sp. Blue Beds, D6A, Speeton. Holotype: H.721/25066. Distal view. x 4500.

Description:
A species of Speetonia with a bridge made of numerous elongate crystals.
Size: Distal shield $8.1 \times 6.8 \mu m$ to $11.8 \times 9.0 \mu m$, 30-40 rays; central opening $4.9 \times 2.8 \mu m$ to $7.0 \times 4.5 \mu m$. Specimens measured, 5.

Type level:
Berriasian and Hauterivian.
Occurrence: In the Blue Beds and the Compound Nodular Bed at Speeton.

Type locality:
Bed D6A (Berriasian) of the Speeton Clay at Speeton, England.

Depository:

Author:
Black M., 1971, p. 413; pl. 34, fig. 10.

Reference: