

Type species: L. indistincta

Diagnosis: Vesicle circular in outline, originally spherical; vesicle wall apparently single layered surface covered by numerous granulate to verrucate ornamental elements; excystment structure consists of a pylome with keevigate operculum

Comparison: Lophosphaeridium Timofeev ex Downie, 1963 does not have a pylome and Nanocyclopa Loeblich & Wicander 1976 has an imbricate margin with hair-like or nubby and blunt "processes"

