
This is the narrow shield variation. The width of the shield is less than 2µm. This variant is also present throughout Campanian to Maastrichtian sediments but becomes common to abundant between the extinction of Bifidalithus geminicotillus Varol (in prep.) and the middle part of the range of Nephrolithus frequens.