Truncatoscaphus

Description:
Elongate coccoliths with an eiffellithalid rim and truncate ends; the longer sides are curved or broadly obtusely angled, the ends are flat so that the overall outline is that of an elongate subhexagonal ring.

Remarks:
This genus is probably derived from Diadozygus, but intermediate forms are unknown.

Type species:

Author:

Reference: